Dear Parents,

We are excited to announce a new initiative at Podar International School, Kalkere, Bengaluru called "The Helper Squad". This initiative aims to foster a culture of empathy, understanding, and inclusivity among our students.

About The Helper Squad

The Helper Squad is a team of students who will assist their peers with special needs in the classroom. The members of this squad will be given specific roles and responsibilities by our teachers and school counselor.

Benefits for Your Child

1. Develop Empathy: By helping their peers, students will learn to understand and share the feelings of others.
2. Cultivate Inclusivity: This initiative will promote an inclusive environment where every student feels valued and accepted.
3. Improve Socialization: Interacting with a diverse group of peers will enhance students' social skills.
4. Foster a Helping Nature: Students will develop a sense of responsibility and a desire to help others.

We believe that participation in The Helper Squad is a crucial opportunity for your child to grow both personally and socially. We kindly request your consent for your child's participation in The Helper Squad. By signing below, you agree to allow your ward to participate in this initiative.

We appreciate your support in this initiative and look forward to a successful implementation.

Best Regards,

T Srikar,
Wellness Teacher cum Special Educator
