The Essence of Independence

Have we truly achieved Independence? We have claimed our sovereignty from foreign rule many years ago, but do we truly have freedom of living in a dignified manner? Every day, we experience disparity closely, but we have become so immune to it that we turn a blind eye towards it. In a nation where manual scavenging is still a profession for many, casteism still rampant with many not having access to essential amenities like education and sanitation, we need to ask ourselves what does independence truly mean. Even after so many years of independence, women cannot venture out to pursue education or careers due to the fear for their safety. They are not free to express their opinions without being trolled – whether online or offline. We call ourselves a free nation but do not have the freedom to choose what we eat, what we wear or even whom we love. Independence Day doesn't mean one day of national pride; it implies a commitment to serve the nation in a truly inclusive way. It is our duty to make the dream of a progressive nation with all citizens enjoying equal rights to live with dignity come true.

“Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction. We didn't pass it to our children in the bloodstream. It must be fought for, protected and handed on for them to do the same.” --Ronald Reagan

Independence: A Long Way to go

We proudly claim that we are independent from foreign rule, but we are still not free from jealousy, intolerance and hatred towards our fellow countrymen. We are full of bitterness towards other religions, traditions and always try to suppress the growth of the other. We are tied in the shackles of terrorism, false ideologies, corruption, communal violence and class-caste distinctions and so on. We tend to forget that independence is not only living freely but also allowing others to live freely.

We say that we are a free nation but our behaviour suggests that we are still not free. We take pride in other's culture but not in our own culture. We admire other countries but forget to consider the merits of our nation. We love western culture and try to avoid Indian culture. We love pizza, McDonald's, Pepsi and Coke but hate Indian recipes. We wear jeans, skirts and often criticise our saris and suits. We take pride in a foreign language but fail to learn and appreciate our languages. We aspire for jobs in USA, UK and Australia etc. and are filled with regret for being born and living in India. Undoubtedly, we are independent but monetarily paralysed. We do not think independently, we often believe what others make us believe.

All this makes one think that are we really independent? Are we a free nation? Are we worthy of any praise? India should come together to answer these questions as this cannot be done by an individual but the whole nation.

It would be unfair to say that that we cannot do anything because when we Indians decide to do something, then nothing is impossible for us. It is just momentary laziness and lack of encouragement that has led to this situation. So I call upon all the people, especially the youth of the nation, to come forward and break all the shackles to make the country truly independent and free.

Everyone should pledge to work towards the development of India in a true sense and make India a place of integrity and happiness and mark it as a prosperous nation on the world map. Only then we will be independent in the true sense of the term.

Are we actually Independent?

When I think about independence, I think about the freedom of the country which we got on 15th August 1947 and we celebrate every year.

But when sometimes I think about the questions like- 'Do our children have the freedom to select the career?' 'Do we have freedom from caste discrimination?' 'Do the girls have the liberty to go out alone?' or 'Have we got the freedom from the communal tensions?' I feel that we have to reconsider our freedom.

The answer to this question is easy for some and difficult for others. Our country is independent because of the great leaders and we have to keep that in mind before we think and act.

Yes, we are independent. We got our independence from the British rule on 15th August 1947. We all have equal rights and equal say in the democratic system.

15th August is our Independence Day. It is the day we got freedom from British rule and celebrated as a national festival in India. I think that we are independent because we are following a constitution written by Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar.

Independence is the greatest gift that our great leaders gave us. They fought for our freedom until the very last breath to ensure that we do not have to face what they had to. But nowadays, are we really independent? Are low-income families free to send their children to schools? Are our daughters free to roam at late nights? Are we free to raise our voice against the administration?

According to me, India will be independent when we are free from corruption and manipulation.

Vedika Sankul

No, we are not entirely independent. If we stop the violence, our country will be the best country in the world. We need to make efforts in the right direction to be called as an independent country.

Remembering Atal Bihari Vajpayee

The person who made us realise that our aim may be as high as the endless sky, but we should have a resolution in mind to walk ahead hand-in-hand and the victory will be ours, is the great personality none other than Atal Bihari Vajpayee. He was an Indian politician who served three terms as the Prime Minister of India: the first term of 13 days in 1996, then for 13 months from 1998 to 1999 and finally for a full term from 1999-2004. He was a member of the Indian Parliament for over four decades, having been elected in the Lok Sabha and twice in the Rajya Sabha. He was honoured with Bharat Ratna in 2015, Padma Vibhushan in 1992. This great personality breathed his last on 16th August 2018 in Delhi, but left us with all his wisdom and knowledge.

Natural Calamity hits Kerala

The anger of nature cannot be expressed in words as the devastating effects can be felt just by visualising the conditions. Recently, Kerala suffered with one of the worst natural calamities of the decade and our school is immensely sympathetic towards innocents suffering the punishments of nature. Hence, we decided to actively participate in taking care of people of Kerala who were living on the top of their houses to keep themselves away from the water. To help them, PIS, Nasik collected safety material and tried to fulfil the needs of the suffering people. We took the responsibility to send medicines, food grains, oils, etc. to ensure that there will be no deaths due to starvation. To cure the diseased conditions, medication like aspirin and cofsils were delivered to the patients. For sanitisation, sanitary pads and other aseptic materials were delivered. We always try our level best to contribute our bit during disasters. Being a part of this nation, it is our duty to ensure the good health and well-being of the people.

Every year, the students of PIS, Nashik celebrate it with a lot of energy and enthusiasm. This year, the event was rather dramatic due to the onset of monsoon.

Nevertheless, the rain stopped and the event started with the flag hoisting ceremony. The students had prepared dance performances, songs and skits, which they performed with grace and poise. Their love for our country was reflected in their performances. The occasion successfully concluded with the feeling of respect and honour towards our country.

A Day with Specially-abled

On 14th August 2018, all the members of the Student Council, escorted by their teachers, visited the visually-impaired children of the blind school near College Road. The moment we stepped into the school premises, the warmth and exuberance of the inmates surrounded us. Be it their music, their answering skills in the quiz or the other divine moments shared in the assembly hall; every moment highlighted their complete involvement and robust enthusiasm in the execution of their duties, accompanied with a smile on their lips. We understood how strong and powerful is a person's willpower. Normal people with alright physical features and working conditions tend to curse destiny for some reason or the other. It is said that scarcity brings out the best in a person. That was visible in the specially-abled students.

What does being Independent mean?

India is really independent in all true senses. It has a vast energy force of young brigade which constitutes 40% of total population. India is capable of defending its borders on its own.

India has progressed in the fields of health, science, education and employment. It has made tremendous development in the area of information technology. Except for some nagging issues of terrorism and poverty, we are really independent in all sectors.

Dr. Deepali Patil
(Parent of Manas Patil VII- Kalam)

Is India Independent?

देश में बढ़ता भ्रष्टाचार, बेरोजगारी, भुखमरी, कुपोषण तथा गरीबी के कारण आजादी शब्द के मायने खत्म होते जा रहे हैं। आज हम कहीं नक्सलवाद से लड़ रहे हैं तो कहीं आतंकवाद से, कहीं जातिवाद से तो कहीं भ्रष्टाचार से, और तो और हमारे देश की अधिकतर महिलाएं तो सिर्फ अपने अस्तित्व के लिए लड़ रही हैं। जब तक ये समस्याएँ देश से पूरी तरह समाप्त नहीं होंगी तब तक हम वास्तव में आजाद नहीं कहलायेंगे।

परेश स. नानेकर

आजादी का अर्थ यह

कतई नहीं है कि स्वच्छंद होकर मनमानी की जाए, अपनी मर्यादा को भूलकर सरेआम अनैतिक कृत्य किया जाए। नेता और आम जनता भी अपनी सीमाएं खुद तय करें। क्या सही क्या गलत यह करने से पूर्व सोचे तभी आजादी का असली आनंद उठाया जा सकता है और तब हम गर्व से कह सकेंगे कि हाँ हम आजाद हैं।

महती बेंडे
४ थी ऊर्जा

हम आज भी वास्तव में आजाद नहीं हैं, क्योंकि आज भी हम उन्हीं समस्याओं से गुजर रहे हैं। आज भी भुखमरी, लाचारी, गरीबी और मूलभूत चीजों के लिए झगड़ रहे हैं। आज भी पानी, सड़क, बिजली ये समस्याएँ हमको जकड़ें हुये हैं। अतः हम कह सकते हैं कि वास्तव में हम आजाद नहीं हैं।

अदिती दानेकर
४ थी ऊर्जा

१५ अगस्त २०१८, वैसे तो कहने को हम आजाद हैं पर क्या वास्तव में हम आजाद हैं? मेरी नजर में तो १५ अगस्त १९४७ को सिर्फ आजाद हुआ था, भारतवासी नहीं क्योंकि जात-पाँत के बंधन के एवं आरक्षण रुपी बेडियों के हम आज भी गुलाम हैं।

आरुषि योगेश शिंदे

आजादी

के सही मायने के तौर पर हम ऐसी संवैधानिक व्यवस्था की बात करते हैं, जिसमें हर नागरिक के पास अभिव्यक्ति की स्वतन्त्रता हो, स्वेच्छानुसार अपनी बात कहने का अधिकार हो।

कृष्णा कुलकर्णी
४ थी रेनबो

भारत हमारा स्वतंत्र देश है। कहने को तो हम स्वतंत्र देश में रहते हैं, लेकिन हकीकत में नजारा कुछ और ही है। आजादी के बाद भी हम वास्तव में आजाद नहीं हुये। दंगे, बम विस्फोट जैसी घटनाओं से भारत की स्वतंत्रता पर प्रश्नचिन्ह लगा हुआ है।

गौरव रामभोटकर
३री एमराल्ड

आजादी के ६९ साल के बाद भी हम आजाद नहीं हैं क्योंकि आज में कई घरों में महिलाओं पर अत्याचार हो रहे हैं। अपहरण, हत्या, गैंगरेप जैसे कांड हो रहे हैं। आजाद भारत में कोई भी इंसान सुरक्षित नहीं है।

वंशिका गडोडिया
४ थी ऊर्जा

हम सिर्फ कहने के लिए आजाद हैं। वास्तव में हम आजाद नहीं हैं। कुछ बातें जो हमें एहसास दिलाती हैं, कि हम आजाद नहीं हैं जैसे- आज भी कोई व्यक्ति देर रात अकेले जाने से डरता है, बेटे और बेटियों में फर्क किया जाता है, लडकियों के पहनावे को लेकर भी रोका जाता है इत्यादि।

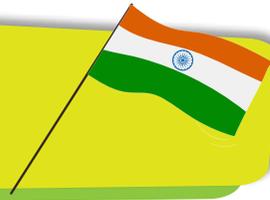

तांजिल
३री प्लैटिनम

हममें से कितने लोग वास्तव में आजाद या स्वतंत्र हैं? शायद हममें से बहुतों का जवाब ना में होगा। आप या हम अक्सर अपने चारों तरफ कुछ गलत होता देखकर भी चुप रहते हैं, आवाज बुलंद नहीं कर पाते, ऐसा क्यों? क्योंकि हम आज भी डर के गुलाम हैं। अतः हम कह सकते हैं कि हम मानसिक रूप से आजाद नहीं हैं।

नियति थोरात
३री प्लैटिनम

क्या हम वास्तव में आजाद हैं? नहीं मानसिक रूप से हम आज भी आजाद नहीं हैं क्योंकि आज भी देश जातिवाद एवं संप्रदायवाद का दंश झेल रहा है। देश के नेता सब कुछ जानकार भी अनजान बनकर चैन की नींद सो रहे हैं।
