JUMPSTART ACTIVITY: PLASTIC PLASTIC EVERYWHERE

The school organized a special event where students learned about the harmful effects of plastic on the environment through interactive discussions. This event was important in helping students realize the urgent need to reduce plastic usage and take responsibility for protecting the planet.

“The natural world is changing, and we are totally dependent on it.”

– David Attenborough

On 7th July the school organised a jumpstart activity titled Plastic plastic Everywhere which helped the students to share their views on the harmful effect of plastic.

ASHADI EKADASHI SPECIAL ASSEMBLY

Ashadhi Ekadashi is considered highly auspicious for spiritual growth and is believed to cleanse sins and help attain moksha. Devotees observe fasts, prayers, and rituals to purify themselves from sins and karmas, seeking blessings that bring them closer to moksha, the ultimate liberation from the cycle of birth and death.

INTERNATIONAL FRIENDSHIP DAY SPECIAL ASSEMBLY

A special assembly was conducted to commemorate this day, on 30th July. Through this assembly, the students of class V portrayed Sudama's constant devotion to Krishna, thus teaching us important lessons about the value of true devotion.

"Life has no pleasure higher or nobler than that of friendship"
– Samuel Johnson

In 2011, the United Nations officially recognised July 30th as the International Day of Friendship.
